Richmond—On Saturday, February 15, 2025, Dr. Antionette V. Irving, Sheriff, will host a regional Justice Summit. This year the theme of the summit is “Voices of Justice: Building Community and a System That Heals”. The panel will focus on criminal justice reform, rehabilitation strategies, and community engagement. This event will be held at the Richmond City Justice Center, 1701 Fairfield Way, Richmond, Virginia 23223, 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM.

Dr. Frederick Douglass Haynes, III, Pastor of The Friendship West Baptist Church, in Dallas Texas, will serve as the event’s moderator. Dr. Haynes is a prophetic pastor, passionate leader, and social activist for racial injustice which has made a lasting impact on communities nationwide.

This summit will consist of a panel of regional leadership as well as various professionals who have an impact on our communities far and wide. This will be a high-level meeting where leaders, experts, and influential figures come together to exchange knowledge, share experiences, and brainstorm solutions.

The summit is open to the public. Attendees from the Justice Summit (2019) as well as our Beyond the Jail Summit (2023 – 2024) events have been invited along with community leaders. Our goal of the summit is to assist in formulating joint solutions to problematic issues that currently systematically impact our community.
