- IV. Issues for Today: Money, People, Planning
- V. Discussion

About S.I.R.

- Born in 1964 as the Southeastern Institute of Research
- Celebrating 60 years
- One of the country's most experienced research-based consultancies.

Strategies. Insights. Results.

We work with local governments around Virginia and around the country.

Why we are here today...

Why we are here today...

Transition planning happens at the Presidential level:

'It's very important for candidates for president to have...a rough understanding of the main threats to the country...

'It's even more important that you don't say something during the campaign that undermines the national security of the United States.

The briefing helps candidates in both of those ways.'

—Center for Presidential Transition

Why we are here today...

And at the State level:

National Governors Association recommends:

- Create uniform briefings to transmit essential information.
- Brevity is critical.

Observations

- 'The effectiveness of a state's chief executive also hinges on others, especially the top team: cabinet officials and the heads of departments.'
- 'Though their work is central to delivering government services and achieving the administration's strategic priorities, these officials too often start their new roles without a clear strategy.'

Ground Rules

- This is Richmond's first briefing like this. It is modeled on best practices.
- Everyone gets the same information:
  - Today's briefing
  - Printed materials
  - Website
- When one person asks questions, everyone gets the answers.

Today is NOT...

An in-depth review of department operations.

A deep-dive into the people, personalities, or positions.

This will come immediately after Election Day:
Much greater depth about specific issues & operations.

Today IS...

---

An analytic briefing.

A focus on the foundations.

Today is about providing you tools
to succeed when you become Mayor.

Whatever the Structure, the Foundations Are the Same

- Establish long- and short-term objectives & priorities
- Review and approve the annual budget
- Oversee performance of the local public employees
- Oversee effectiveness of programs
- Establish tax rates
- Enter legal contracts
- Borrow funds
- Pass ordinances and resolutions
- Modify the city's charter (Dillon rule implications)
- Regulate land use through zoning laws
- Regulate business activity (licensing and regulations)
- Regulate public health and safety
- Exercise the power of eminent domain
- Communicate policies and programs to residents
- Respond to constituent needs and complaints
- Represent the community to other levels of government

What is Fiscal Stress?

City's ability to generate its own revenue to pay for services it delivers.

Lack of revenue-generating capacity will lead to "fiscal stress":

1. A shrinking budget, or
2. A gap between revenues and expenditures.

Fiscal Stress Index: Compares this across Virginia cities

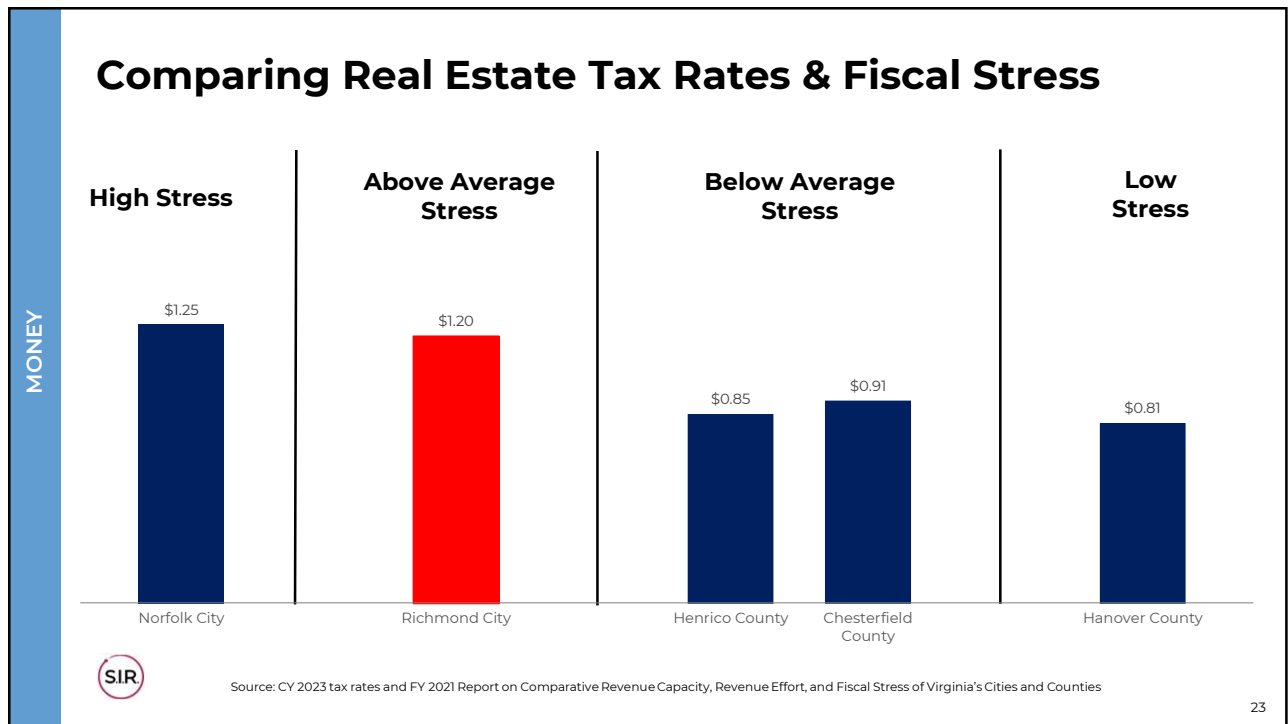

It has three components:

- Revenue capacity per capita (the theoretical ability of a locality to raise revenue)
- Revenue effort
- Median household income

Richmond: #3 for Tax-Exempt Real Estate

Richmond has Highest Assessed Value of Tax-Exempt Real Estate (2021)

Richmond has 3rd Highest Percentage of Tax-Exempt Real Estate (2021)

 Source: Virginia Department of Taxation Annual Report FY 2022 (Table 6.3)

Amounts are in billion $

Value of 1¢ Real Estate Tax (FY 2024)

Real Estate tax is Richmond's largest revenue source: 46% (almost half)

$3.7 million

$50.0 million G.O. bonds
in Capital Improvement Projects

$50.0 million CIP

$4.0 million yearly debt payment

Staffing City Teams: The National Challenge

A Road Map for Dealing With Government's Workforce Crisis

It has put the ability to deliver essential services at risk, and when government fails, people can die. There are real solutions that will make the public sector more competitive to attract and retain talent.

OPINION | March 2, 2023 • Robert J. Lavigna

Staffing City Teams

What We Found

- A broken system: Under-staffed, under-resourced HR department
- Urgent need: To attract, retain, and motivate skilled workers

What We've Done

- Analyzed compensation structures and comparative market
- Rebuilt HR with new team of credentialed industry professionals
- Made salaries & benefits competitive
  - Launched ARM: Attract, Retain, & Motivate
  - Opened employee health clinics
  - Transitioned to Virginia Retirement System
- Right-Sizing departments then became possible:
  - HR, Finance, IT, Procurement, Budget & Planning

What's Next

- Continue cooperation, continue training, remain vigilant

Compensation & Job Study (FY 23-24)

Scope:

Position description questionnaire

Benchmarking to neighboring localities and peer cities

- Match job titles, descriptions, salaries Richmond jobs to peer city jobs.
- This analysis included Henrico, Chesterfield, Hanover, and Norfolk

Compensation comparative analysis

- Benchmarked jobs to determine City of Richmond’s pay and pay range competitiveness

Actions:

- ✓ Grade range increase of at least 10%
- ✓ Moving 80 jobs to a new grade level, impacting 312 employees
- ✓ 8 new job classifications created, providing additional career ladders
- ✓ Review job classifications of employees whose job duties do not match their classification

What's Next?

What We Found

- Under-staffed Departments
- Excessive turnover at all levels
- Outdated systems

What We've Done

- Grew the staff

What's Next

- Continue to increase the quality of candidates we Attract, Retain, and Motivate
  - Drive culture change: Create a fun, healthy, productive working environment
  - Remain competitive
